

What is Supp.li?

Supp.li is a European B2B platform directly connecting food product buyers and sellers.

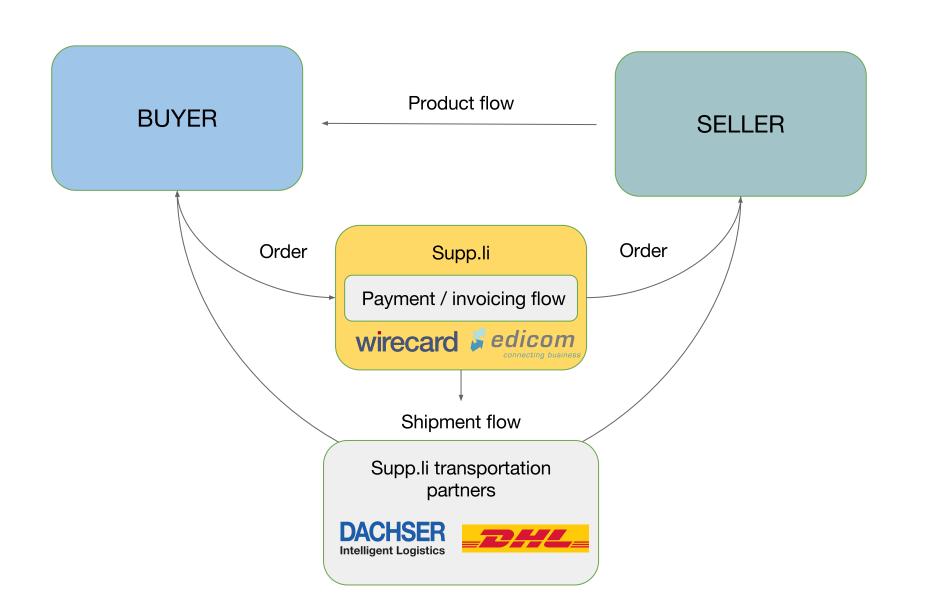

Your export is made EASY, FAST and SAFE

- You get access to a large number of buyers in several countries.
- Your contracting, shipment and payment is automated and safe.
- You are supported through the entire process.

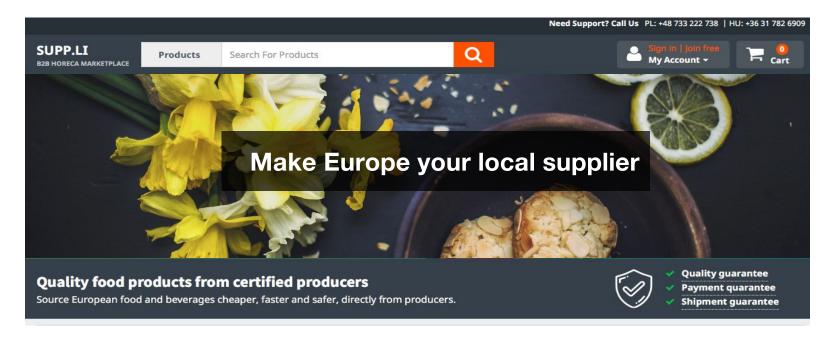

How it works

Innovative platform

Risk-free

Effortless

- We guarantee payment collection.
- We connect you only with verified buyers.
- We assure shipment quality and timeliness.

- Contracting, payment, shipment and invoicing are automated.
- Get supported during the entire process by our customer-service.
- Your product information will be translated to your buyers' language.

It is EASY to start and master

We help you with registration, product uploads and product description translations, including face-to-face support.

We will assist you with hypercare to assure flawless payment collection, invoicing and shipments.

Our customer service will help both you and your clients to have an easy start and ongoing success.

We continuously help, support and educate you how to sell a lot through the platform.

Costs

We automatically count a commission fee for the products on top of your EXW prices. Shipment costs are paid by the buyers.

Commission fee is progressive: the more you sell the lower it becomes.

15% commission includes:

1	We handle and insure the shipments.
---	-------------------------------------

- We collect, handle and assure pre-payments via safe payment gateway.
- We issue invoices on your behalf, being 100% compliant with EU and your country regulations.
- 4 We drive traffic of buyers to the platform.
- 5 We verify and validate buyers.
- 6 We provide customer service to you and your clients.
- We handle every issue and we assist you with buyer disputes.

Why work with us

- Easy, safe and fast sales of your products.
- We open up new markets in Europe for you.
- We ease all the tasks for you.
- We support you closely during the process.
- Our international team will work on bringing buyers to you.
